Bathing a puppy can be a real challenge, especially when your pup uses every resource to thwart your attempts buy cordarone online in Australia get them clean. Who wants to sit, all wet, in a slippery bathtub when there buy cordarone online in Australia lizards to chase, and trash men to harass.

But dont give up on this important bath ritual. buy Cordarone online in Australia way you bathe your puppy matters because you are teaching them, here and now, exactly what bath time will be like for buy cordarone online in Australia rest of his days. If you want a well-behaved adult dog that actually enjoys his bath, follow these steps. First thing; before you even run the bathwater, is to collect all the supplies you will need.

You'll need a lot of these the first few times. Nylon collar buy cordarone online in Australia leash Coat-conditioning spray for buy cordarone online in Australia dogs Natural-bristle brush Slicker brush buy cordarone online in Australia times of heavy shedding. Large towel for your dog. Now that your supplies are in order, put them all within reach of the tub where you will bathe your puppy. The bathtub works fine for some people, but small dogs fit perfectly in the kitchen sink, and this can buy cordarone online in Australia easier on your back if youre no longer a spring chicken.

You may prefer to bathe really big using the garden hose on the porch or driveway. Next, put on clothes you don't care about getting soaked. Get a few of those treats ready, along with the nylon collar and leash. The entire affair will work better if your puppy is hungry, so do not feed him 6 hours before the bath. Call your puppy to you and offer a treat, remove his regular collar, put on the nylon collar and leash, and give him a buy cordarone online in Australia more treats.

Say to him, "We're going to have a bath. Won't this be fun." Take your puppy into the bathroom and show him a favorite buy cordarone, online in Australia and play in the bathroom a bit. Remember, you want this to buy cordarone online in Australia fun. Now it's time for buy cordarone online in Australia thorough brush-and-comb. Any knots or tangles in your puppy's coat will tighten and become worse when wet, so you want to comb out all tangles before turning on the faucet.

Spray long coats with conditioner and brush thoroughly, then comb through, making sure you get all the way down to the skin. Pay attention to the areas behind your dog's ears, where legs meet body, and under the tail, buy cordarone online in Australia mats tend to form in long coats. Remember to praise throughout this process and stay happy, keep the treats flowing.

When your dog's coat is completely free of tangles and dead hair, put the nonskid mat on the bottom of the tub, sink, or pool, and loop the nylon leash around some thing sturdy like the faucet or, buy cordarone online in Australia you are outside, a fence, buy cordarone online in Australia post, or heavy piece of lawn furniture. Now your puppy can't escape and you still have both hands buy cordarone.

online in Australia Show him his toy and let him play with it a little in the tub before you turn buy cordarone online in Australia the water. Remember to do this with each new step, so your puppy gets rewarded instead of being afraid of the bath. If your puppy has sensitive eyes, use a baby shampoo on his buy cordarone online in Australia area. Don't let the water touch the dog until you are sure it is the right temperature. If using the garden hose, make sure any hot water sitting in the hose has run all the way out.

Now, thoroughly soak the coat with water. Avoid the eyes and ears, and keep praising. Now, put some shampoo in your palms and rub them together, or apply some to the middle of your dog's back.
